

"Buying your first home can be extremely overwhelming! My husband and I could not have been luckier to find Heather Jackman as our realtor as we set out to accomplish this mission. Heather was always positive and very motivating. She gave us the confidence that we needed to know that things would work out as we made one of the biggest decisions of our lives. Heather's attention to detail in every aspect of the purchase of our home was exceptional. She went the extra mile on a daily basis and she was always available to answer our many questions throughout the entire process-day or night. Heather dealt with potential problems before they became real problems. She represented our interests exceedingly well and was very easy to work with during each new phase of purchasing our home. Due to her level of expertise, she was able to explain to us very clearly the process we were working through and all options available to us. Heather made a consistent and conscious effort to make sure we were comfortable every step along the way. When it comes time to buy/sell again, our first call will be to Heather Jackman. We highly recommend Heather for her integrity, her knowledge, her experience, her incredible level of customer service and her tireless efforts to cover every detail. Today, we are honored to call Heather Jackman our first friend in our new community."
